Knowledge Graphs of Literary Crossings

Modeling European-Korean Literary Translation History Using Linked Open Data, the Second workshop

Date: October 19 – 21, 2026

Venue: Meeting room, 3rd floor, DM-Building, Trier University

Organizer: Prof. Dr. Christof Schöch, Trier Center for Digital Humanities (TCDH)

Programme

Day 1 – Monday, Oct. 19. 2026

17:00	Meet and Greet

Day 2 – Tuesday, Oct. 20. 2026

09:30 – 10:00	Tea and coffee
10:00 – 10:45	Song-yi Jung (AKS) – "From Design to Data: An LRMoo-based RDF Model for Korean Translation and Criticism, Validated on 271 Editions of Goethe's Werther"
10:45 – 11:30	Haein Ji & Byungjun Kim (AKS) – "An Agentic Framework for Semi-Automated TEI/XML Encoding of Multilingual Literary Texts"
11:30 – 11:45	Short break
11:45 – 12:30	Gayeon Kim & SeonYeong Park (AKS) – "Reading Germany from Korea: Citation Flows and Shifting Interests in Korean German Studies, 2008–2024"
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch break
14:00 – 17:00	Christof Schöch, Keli Du, Élodie Ripoll (TCDH) – Collaborative hands-on exploration of datasets relevant to literary translation

Day 3 – Wednesday, Oct. 21. 2026

09:30 – 12:00	Christof Schöch, Byungjun Kim – Exploring options for a joint project: funding opportunities, topics and methods, team composition.

AKS 한국학중앙연구원 THE ACADEMY OF KOREAN STUDIES
Kompetenzzentrum Trier Center for Digital Humanities
NRF National Research Foundation of Korea
DFG Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft
UNIVERSITÄT TRIER